

2021 – 2022 Calendar Overview

Summer 2021

Greetings MND Students and Families,

As our school day rotation is shifting slightly for the 2021 – 2022 school year, this introductory letter serves to update all families on what to expect for the year and our rationale.

After the pandemic year of 2020 – 2021, MND learned that having a standard daily schedule rotation each week was of great benefit to students and faculty. We found that we were able to preserve academic time by concentrating instructional minutes on A/B days and scheduling supplemental and co-curricular/community-building activities on other days – now known as “C” days.

“C” days were named as such as they will focus on building community – our sisterhood – here at MND. Our new “Community” groupings (formerly homerooms) will help to support this goal and we are excited that the Class of 2022 has stepped up as leaders for this new MND endeavor.

- Some “C” days are comprised of activities that are non-instructional days (like Roo-Ha or testing) while other “C” days will have activities and classes. When “C” days with classes occur, they have an extension of “A” or “B” attached to them. (C – A day or C – B day). Regardless of which type of “C” day we have, all of them are required school days.
- As in years past, MND will utilize some time during most weeks for Faculty Professional Learning Community (PLC) meetings. This time is almost always on a “C” day which is why most of these days involve a late-start for students. Please remember that our building will be open at the regular time so that students can plan to arrive on their regular arrival time if that is better for families.

The calendar and chart that follows provides the overview of the 2021 – 2022 calendar as well as the tentative plans for “C” days by week. Additionally, in the next few weeks, MND will import the full school calendar into MND Central so that families can view the calendar there and can integrate it into other calendar programs as desired. Please note that we will again post “C” day reminders to MND Central on BAND a week prior to confirm the plans for the next “C” day. Finally, each MND student will receive a printed MND block schedule planner on her first day of school which contains the daily rotation, special events, club meetings, etc.

We have worked hard to solidify as much as we can now on our detailed calendar. We do ask for your understanding should we need to make any slight adjustments, which would be communicated in advance. Looking forward to a great year together!

Karen Day, Principal
